

Summer Reading for 6th Grade English

1. The Golden Goblet, by Eloise Jarvis McGraw, or A Place in the Sun, by Jill Rubalcaba
2. Any one of the following:
 - The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe*, by C.S. Lewis
 - Walk Two Moons*, by Sharon Creech
 - Tuck Everlasting*, by Natalie Babbitt
 - Hittite Warrior*, by Joanne Williamson
 - Little Women*, by Louisa May Alcott
 - A Wrinkle in Time*, by Madeleine L'Engle

You should be prepared to take A.R. tests on all of your summer reading when you return to school in August. In addition, the book read by all the 6th graders may be included in the 6th grade Language Arts and/or Social Studies curricula for discussion, projects, presentations, and integrated study.
