

Summer Reading for 7th Grade English

1. Detectives in Togas, by Henry Winterfeld, or The Eagle of the Ninth, by Rosemary Sutcliff
2. Any one of the following:
 - The Princess and the Goblin*, by George MacDonald
 - Snow Treasure*, by Marie McSwigan
 - Watership Down*, by Richard Adams
 - Strider*, by Beverly Cleary
 - The Light in the Forest*, by Conrad Richter
 - Redwall*, by Brian Jacques

You should be prepared to take A.R. tests on all of your summer reading when you return to school in August. In addition, the book read by all the 7th graders may be included in the 7th grade Language Arts and/or Social Studies curricula for discussion, projects, presentations, and integrated study.
